

Antigone Anticipation Guide

Directions: Read the following statements. Choose whether you agree or disagree. In the space below each statement, write two to three sentences explaining your reasoning. Keep these opinions in mind as you read Antigone and consider whether Sophocles - and various characters in his play - feel the same way you do.

Agree Strongly ----- Agree ----- Disagree ----- Disagree Strongly

1. If a close friend or family member did something illegal, I would not tell the police, even if it meant getting into trouble myself.

2. I would risk dying to honor my family.

3. When a conflict occurs between beliefs, it is not a case of "right" or "wrong" - it is a case of different perceptions/points of view.

4. Someone who obeys every law is weak and fearful.

5. I believe in the death penalty.

6. It is sometimes justifiable to punish other people for one person's crime.
