

Using gern and nicht so gern

Look at these sentences and see if you know what they mean!

Ich habe die Schule gern?

Er hat Latein nicht so gern.

Wir haben Hausaufgaben nicht gern.

What do you think gern means?

It means that you like that activity or thing (or person).

What do you think nicht so gern means?

It means that you don't really like it and nicht gern means that you DO NOT like it.

Notice where it is placed in the sentence! It comes after the activity that you like (or don't like).
